OVERVIEW

The Hermes Netburn O'Connor & Spearing insurance team has extensive experience in a wide variety of insurance, reinsurance and commercial matters, and has represented parties before virtually every major global judicial forum and arbitration institution.

We advise clients in connection with highly-specialized commercial surety and fidelity claims, as well as negotiate and litigate claims on a range of bond products. Informed by our depth of experience in the insurance and construction industries, our team enjoys a long-standing reputation for handling every aspect of investigating, negotiating and litigating disputes related to issues involving bonds and commercial insurance policies. Our lawyers are consistently recognized by Massachusetts and New England Superlawyers, U.S. News' Best Law Firms, Chambers USA and are active members of industry groups such as the ABA Fidelity & Surety Law Committee, Fidelity Law Association and the Surety Claims Institute. We invite you to learn more about our experience with commercial and contract surety, bonds and fidelity matters.
