OVERVIEW

Hermes Netburn has the experience and skill to defend you or your business in any type of claim involving negligence, serious personal injury or even death.

Hermes Netburn, O'Connor & Spearing, P.C. attorneys have decades of experience representing their clients in all manner of personal injury claims and litigation. We have the resources and ability to handle the litigation of complex toxic tort claims, and the care and attention to detail to resolve claims of slip and fall injuries. We represent clients facing claims of negligence and personal injury due to:

- asbestos and other toxic tort exposure
- construction-related injuries
- premises liability
- medical device and pharmaceutical defects
- products liability and breach of warranty claims
- professional malpractice
- and many others

Our attorneys know that negligence and personal liability claims can disrupt your business in any number of ways. We pride ourselves in working with our clients to minimize the impact of litigation on our clients' businesses. We will always put the needs of our client first in resolving these claims, whether it be in mediation, arbitration or in the courtroom.

When you are facing litigation, you want experienced attorneys who will fight for the best outcome for you. Hermes Netburn attorneys have experience trying cases in both state and federal court in Massachusetts, New England, New York and beyond. We will work to quickly and precisely identify the key issues in your dispute and develop a strategy tailored to specifically resolve your disputes, whether it through dispositive motion, settlement or trial.
